

BOARD OF DIRECTORSApplication of Current Laws and Regulatory Requirements

It is the intention of the Kennewick School District board of Directors to comply with all current WAC's, RCW's and Federal laws and regulations. Therefore, all Board policies should be read as consistent with the current version of the "Legal Reference" referred to and the current version of all regulations implementing such the "Legal Reference." Similarly, insofar as current law or regulation requires particular board policies, it is the intention of the Board that such required policy be presumed adopted.
