

ADMINISTRATIONProfessional Growth and Development

The board of directors recognizes the necessity for professional growth and development of its administrative and supervisory staff in achieving and maintaining excellence in leadership.

The administrative and supervisory personnel shall be expected to continue their professional growth and development through formal and informal study and research and through contacts with other educators, school districts, institutions, professional organizations, and attendance at professional conferences, workshops, and institutes.

Adopted: October 13, 1993