Parent, Family and Community Partnerships

Vision

Students master academic skills and develop civic responsibility, because of family, school and community support enhanced by school partnerships with parents, families and community organizations that enable parents to:

- A. rely on community resources to support their parenting efforts;
- B. understand their children's school experience;
- C. participate as volunteers in school;
- D. support student learning at home;
- E. develop effective parenting skills;
- F. participate in important decisions affecting their children; and

Structure

- A. Building Level: Parent and Community Partnership Plans

Each school and the families and community it serves is different. Therefore, each school must have its own approach to parent and community partnerships. Working together staff and parents at each school shall develop a three year plan to achieve the following goals:

1. Multiple techniques assure that:
 - (a) all parents understand their children's school experience and
 - (b) the school staff understands parents' and community expectations for the school.
2. School staff work with parent and community volunteers in the school in ways that are beneficial to students and that strengthen school and community relations.
3. Families receive information about how to support their children's learning at home.
4. Parents are referred to resources for assistance in developing their parenting skills, or to obtain advice on family financial, health or welfare issues. Connections are maintained with community resources and agencies to assure current information and continuous cooperation.
5. Representatives of parents and the community served by the school will participate as members of the school site councils and on the school's student learning improvement team. All parents have the opportunity to review and advise on their student's learning experience.

6. Collaborations and exchanges are established with businesses and agencies in the community to broaden the learning opportunities for students and expand options for teachers.

Each school's Family and Community Partnership plan shall include a timeline for implementations, success indicators, evaluation procedures, and a system for reporting to the community and the school district.

B. District Level: Expectations, Support and Resources

The success of each school's plan depends upon its appropriateness to the school's service area. The district shall develop a three year plan to achieve the following goals:

1. In-service training enables teachers and administrators to more effectively work with parents and families as partners in student's learning.
2. Within the constraints of the district budget, financial and staff resources are allocated to assist and support the implementation of individual school plans.
3. When hiring and promoting personnel, consideration is given to experience and performance in developing effective parents, family and community partnerships.
4. The district in partnership with individual schools or other community organizations to support the development of parenting skills, including helping parents to develop the capacity to support students' learning at home.
5. Partnerships with other units of government and public and private social, health, welfare and fraternal agencies are developed to create a community support system to strengthen families' ability to guide the academic and character development of their children.

Accountability

- A. An information system will be developed to enable the district to assess progress toward its Parent, Family and Community Partnership goals. Using the information reported to it the board will review progress each year toward the policy's goals reported by each school and the district.

Advocacy

- A. Each year the Board will focus the community's attention on Parent, Family and Community Partnerships by reviewing progress toward the district's goals and may host a community forum to promote discussion among school, parent and community leaders about how they can continue to work together to support the academic and civic development of students, as exemplified by the curriculum adoption policy 2311.

- B. The Board will use polling, community meetings and participation in the meetings of other Organizations to (1) understand public expectations for the schools and (2) explain the school's work in strengthening parents' and families' ability to support students' academic and civic development.
