FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

Disposal of Obsolete, Unneeded or Economically Irreparable Materials

The Board of Directors authorizes the superintendent or designee to determine whether any text, other books, equipment, instructional materials or relocatable facilities re (1) obsolete, (2) in excess of current and/or projected district needs, or (3) not economically feasible to maintain or repair. The Board further authorizes the superintendent to develop and carry out procedures in accordance with state law for the disposal through sale, auction, donation or scrapping when such items are declared surplus. Students wishing to purchase texts shall have priority to purchase such texts in accordance with the depreciation scale determining the value of texts. The sale of real property such as land and permanent buildings shall be excluded from this policy and will be disposed of according to RCW 28A.335.090.
