Check mark the scholarships you are applying for, you may apply for more than one.

George & Hazel Hodgson Scholarship

☐

The Foundation's scholarship program will provide two $2,400 scholarships paid directly to the institute of higher learning the recipient elects to attend. George and Hazel settled in the Kennewick area some 60 years ago. George farmed along the Columbia River and Hazel was a teacher. In 1988 Hazel endowed the Kennewick School Foundation with an investment to provide 2 scholarships. Hazel died in 2000 after living a full life. Recipients must be a graduating senior from Kennewick High School with a GPA of 2.5 or higher.

Sally Jo Joseph Educational Scholarship

☐

Sally Jo Joseph taught English and Humanities in the Kennewick School system for 32 years, retiring from Kennewick High School. Sally Jo died from health complications in the summer of 2001. She stressed the values of reading, appreciation of the Humanities and emphasized life long learning. Developing leadership skills is important and she encouraged participation in school and community activities. The Foundation's scholarship program will provide one $10,000 (4 years @ $2,500) paid directly to the institute of higher learning within the state of Washington. Recipients must be a graduating senior from the Kennewick School district with a GPA of 3.0 or higher and planning a career in teaching or the liberal arts.

Kennewick Highland Grange & MG Clark Scholarship

☐

The Foundation's scholarship program will provide a $1,200 scholarship paid directly to the institute of higher learning the recipient elects to attend. The Kennewick Highland Grange made an endowment in 1988 to establish this scholarship. It is in the name of Mr. M.G. Clark who taught at Kennewick High some 30 years ago. Recipient must be a graduating senior from Kennewick School district and planning a career in a science related field. Mathematics and Engineering qualify.

Ed Troxel Kennewick High School Scholarship

Ed Troxel was a past Kennewick High School coach and Athletic Director. He spent many hours with the high school athletes and always stressed to them the importance of believing in themselves and reaching towards higher goals. This scholarship was funded with an endowment from a charitable event called the Ed Troxel Roast in 1996. The Foundation's scholarship will provide a $1,500 scholarship paid directly to the institute of higher learning the recipient elects to attend. Recipient must be a graduating senior from Kennewick or Southridge HS with a GPA of 2.5 or higher.

Faurot Family Endowment Scholarship

☐

Mr. and Mrs. Faurot retired to the Kennewick community in 1992. Mr. Faurot passed away in 1995. Mrs. Faurot passed away in 2004. They both demonstrated significant charitable commitment to the community. Mrs. Faurot came from a large family that did not have the resources to assist all of the children to further their education. Mrs. Faurot made a gift in 2002 to establish an endowment for students in the Kennewick School District. Through the endowment the Kennewick School Foundation will provide two $2,000 scholarships paid directly to the institute of higher learning the recipient elects to attend. Recipient must be a graduating senior from the Kennewick School District and have GPA of 2.5 or higher. The scholarship is to focus on students that have a strong financial need. Eligible schools for further education would include community colleges, vocational and tech schools as well as four-year universities.

Terry M. Tanneberg Memorial Scholarship

☐

Terry Tanneberg began her career as a teacher for the Kennewick School District in 1976. She taught at Hawthorne and Southgate Elementary Schools for fourteen years before being named Principal of Sunset View Elementary in 1990. She continued as a Principal with the Kennewick School District until 2003, when she was forced into retirement due to melanoma. She lost her battle with melanoma and passed away on August 26, 2003. Terry believed strongly that all children had the capacity to learn and strived to provide quality educational opportunities for all students. She believed that education was a life long opportunity and continually strived to make life better, for everyone she came into contact with, through the educational process. The Foundation's Scholarship program will provide a $1,000 scholarship paid directly to the institute of higher learning the recipient elects to attend. Recipient must be a graduating senior from the Kennewick School District and planning a career in education.
